Oracle of Fire's Promise

Through your efforts to rescue the katana of Fire, you have earned the gratitude of the Oracle of Fire. He has granted you a tie to the Katana's fate, allowing you to call upon the weapon at a time of great need.

At any one time in the future, you may surrender this cert to your GM to find yourself instantly holding the Katana of Fire. It is yours to use for one scene or combat, after which it disappears forever.

The Katana of Fire is a DR 4k3 katana. In addition, every successful strike with the weapon deals the wielder's Honor Rank in fire damage (so a character with Strength 3 and Honor 5 would deal 7k3 damage and an additional 5 fire damage). The Katana of Fire is treated as a katana for purposes of mechanics such as Kenjutsu Mastery abilities and Techniques. Finally, once during the scene or combat the character has summoned the Katana, it may be used to cast The Fires From Within as a rank 4 shugenja with a Fire Ring one higher than the character's own. (this does not count as using a spell slot, if the character is a shugenja.)
